Only 20 minutes from Paphos Airport, Iris Cottage is situated in a quiet residential area, very private and tranquil yet within easy walking distance of the beach, bars and restaurants of Kato Paphos.

The charming town of Paphos lies on the southwest coast of Cyprus.

Sheltered from the north by the Troodos Mountains, it is said to have the healthiest year-round climate in the Mediterranean. The picturesque harbour with its brightly coloured fishing boats and ancient castle, is lined with open-air cafes and tavernas serving fresh fish and many other local delicacies. In the resort of Kato Paphos you will find souvenir shops, bars and restaurants, several beautiful hotels and many places of interest. The old town of Pano Paphos is on the hill overlooking the sea and its maze of streets and indoor market are well worth a visit.

Paphos, legendary birthplace of Aphrodite, is entwined with Greek mythology and nearby are archaeological sites, rich with antiquities and countless places of historical interest; in fact UNESCO has included Paphos on its World Cultural Heritage List.

The accommodation comprises of lounge, dining area, fully equipped kitchen and downstairs toilet. Facilities include oven, hob microwave, fridge/freezer and washing machine. A television, including sky free view box with UK channels, a

DVD player, a VCR and CD player, are all available for your entertainment

The lounge leads on to a private patio with table and chairs plus a sunlounger for relaxation and sunbathing. The settee in the lounge has a fold away bed if required. Upstairs there are two bedrooms, one double and one twin; both have built-in wardrobes, dressing tables and mirrors. The bathroom has bath and shower.

There is air conditioning throughout and ample plug sockets of UK standard

The complex consists of 40 private terraced cottages and has a large communal pool complete with sun loungers and parasols all set in floodlit landscaped gardens. Please note as this is a private complex there is no attendant and toddlers would need to be supervised at all times.

Included is the use of Bed Linen, Bathroom Towels, air conditioning, Electricity and Water Charges.
